

Uncreative writing a diary

Even though I had lost my weight, still my face isn't thin enough. I recognised that the reason is my jawbone, so the most efficient and only solution is a plastic surgery. But, I surprised with its too expensive cost and next, terrified that some people cannot close their mouths after this surgery. I decide to live as I am.